🔗 Bold Profile

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

As a hardworking, reliable, outgoing fashion design student pursuing flexible part-time employment, I hold great handcraft skills and love to seek inspirations around me. I believe that I will definitely add value to the company in need of great collaboration and multitasking abilities. I have experienced with product creation life cycle from initial concept to retail sale. I hope this new working experience can offer me more knowledge about fashion industry and denim technique to improve my professional skills.
